

Mrs Alice Rufo

Alice Rufo was born on 9 April 1980

EDUCATION

Mrs Rufo is a graduate of the Ecole Normale Supérieure (2001-06), the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences Po), and of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA, National School of Public Administration (2008-10). She also holds a Master's degree with distinction in Philosophy.

CAREER

Since November 2022 – Director General for International Relations and Strategy, Ministry for the Armed Forces, Paris

2022 - 2019 – Deputy Diplomatic Adviser, in charge of Strategic and Disarmament Affairs, Private Office of the President of the Republic, Diplomatic Unit, Elysée, Paris

2019 - 2017 – Adviser for Asia, continental Europe, Turkey, refugees-related issues, Private office of the President of the Republic, Diplomatic Unit, Elysée, Paris

2017 – Public Auditor, French Court of Auditors

2016 - 2014 – Adviser for International Summits, Private Office of the President of the Republic, Diplomatic Unit, Elysée, Paris

2014 - 2012 – Technical Adviser for Strategic Affairs and Asia-Pacific, Private Office of the President of the Republic, Diplomatic Unit, Elysée, Paris

2012 - 2011 – Head of Institutions Unit, Directorate for Security and Disarmament Affairs, Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs, Paris

2011 – Rapporteur for the update of the White Paper on Defense and National Security, Secretariat General for Defense and National Security, Paris

Before 2011

Associate Professor (Public Law, and General Culture) to the Institute for Political Sciences (Sciences Po), Paris

Desk Officer for Iran, North Africa and Middle East Directorate, Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs, Paris